FOREWORD

The purpose of the 1956 Edition of the Stella Maris is to record the deeds of the boys and girls, who, for the past four years, embodied the spirit of Our Lady of Pity High School. In the years to come this yearbook will keep alive the memories gathered during their undergraduate days. The future years will bring new faces and changes to the school scene, but there shall be this record of the friends they knew, the things they did, and the memories that are still dear to them.

Afin d'encourager le retour du coeur et de l'esprit vers notre cher Alma Mater, nous avons préparé ce volume qui conservera le souvenir des jours heureux passés à l'Ecole Notre Dame de Pitié. Puisse-t-il nous rappeler les enseignements solides, les principes chrétiens, et nous donner un nouvel essor vers le Beau et le Bien.

REVEREND A. CHAREST, S.M., PASTOR

Whose sterling example ... unstinting devotion ... kindly counsel ... and valued friendship ... we will always treasure with our fondest memories.

REVEREND O. DUMOND, S. M., CURATE

During the short time that Father Dumond has been with us, he has won many friends. His keen interest in the student body has been felt in all the Religion Classes and also at high school activities. He is loved and appreciated by all.

To you, Father Charest,
the friend of youth, through whose kindly encouragement and exemplary advice we have learned the true way of life, which is the way of Christ, we, the Class of 1956, humbly dedicate this volume of the STELLA MARIS as a token of our affection and esteem.

OUR FACULTY

Dear God:

Give me clean hands,
clean words, and clean thoughts, help me to stand for the hard right against the easy wrong, save me from the habits that harm. Teach me to work as hard and play
as fair in Thy sight alone, as if all the world saw.

Forgive me when I am unkind, and help me to forgive those who are unkind to me;
keep me ready to help others at some cost to myself; send me chances to do a little good every day, and so grow more like Christ.

The aim of the Catholic School is to instruct, guide, encourage, and equip its youth to become honorable and useful citizens of their community, as well as God-knowing, God-loving, and God-serving men and women.

RELIGION

It was during Sister Genevieve Alice's absorbing religion class that we came to a deeper realization of the meaning of life. Let us hope that in our future years our teacher's timely counsel and kindly admonitions, so deeply written in our hearts, will continue to spur us on to greater things.

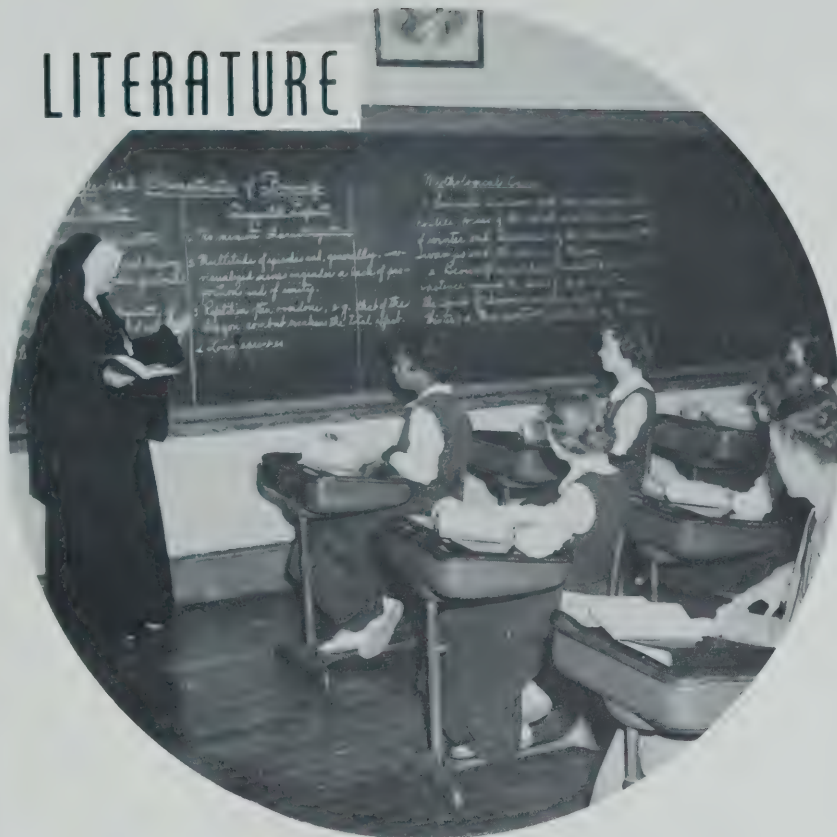

"Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen."

RESEARCH

LITERATURE

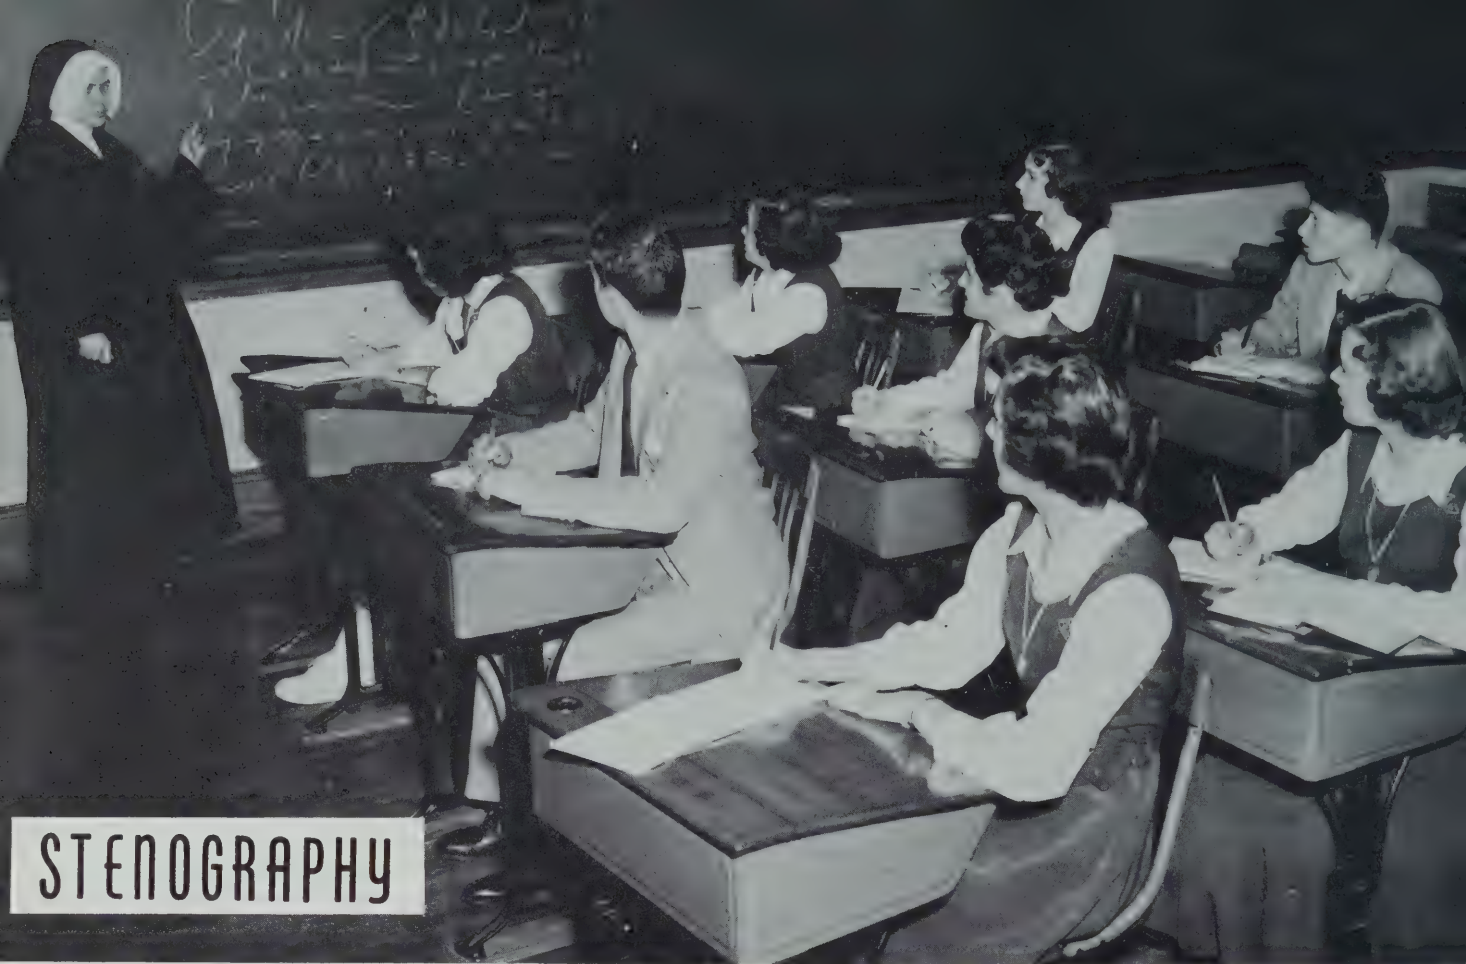

Right:-Group of Catholic University students.

Left:- An intensive study of the English Epic, Beowulf.

ENGLISH

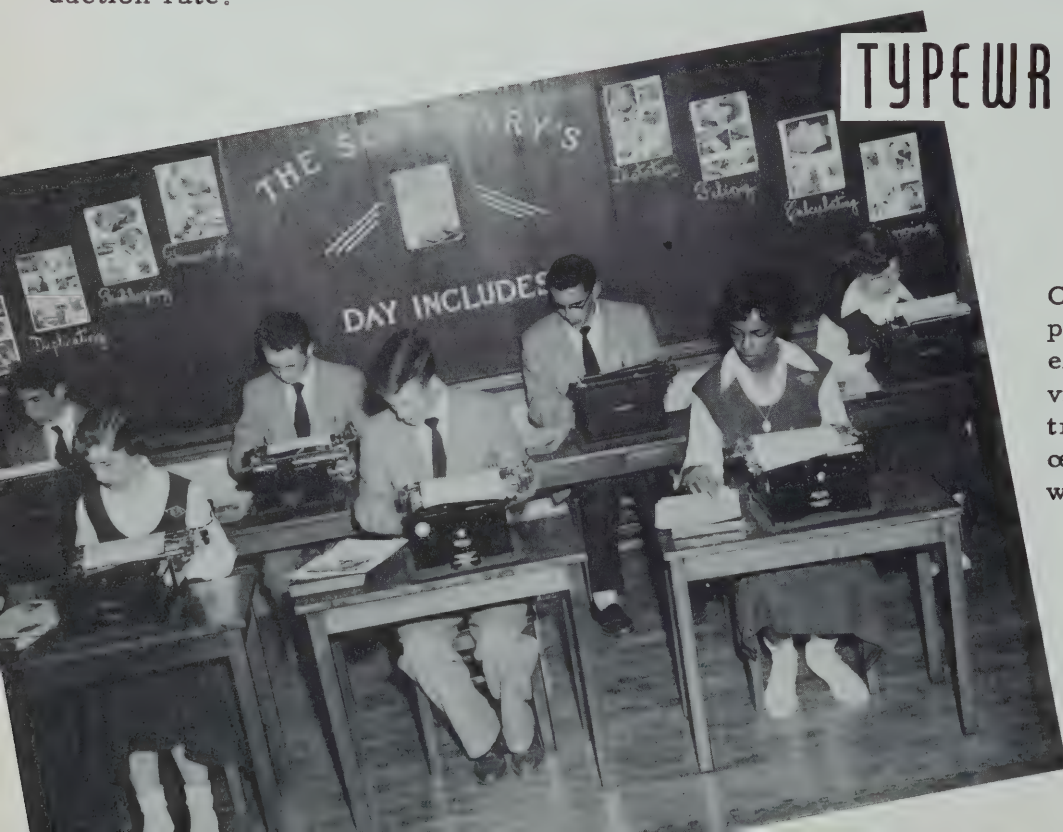

The English Department endeavors to train the student in the principles and practice of correct writing, discriminating and intelligent reading, experience in practical oral expression, and a knowledge and appreciation of our literary heritage.

STENOGRAPHY

Precision in the formation of outlines makes it possible for these stenographers to transcribe their notes without difficulty, and produce mailable copies at a high production rate.

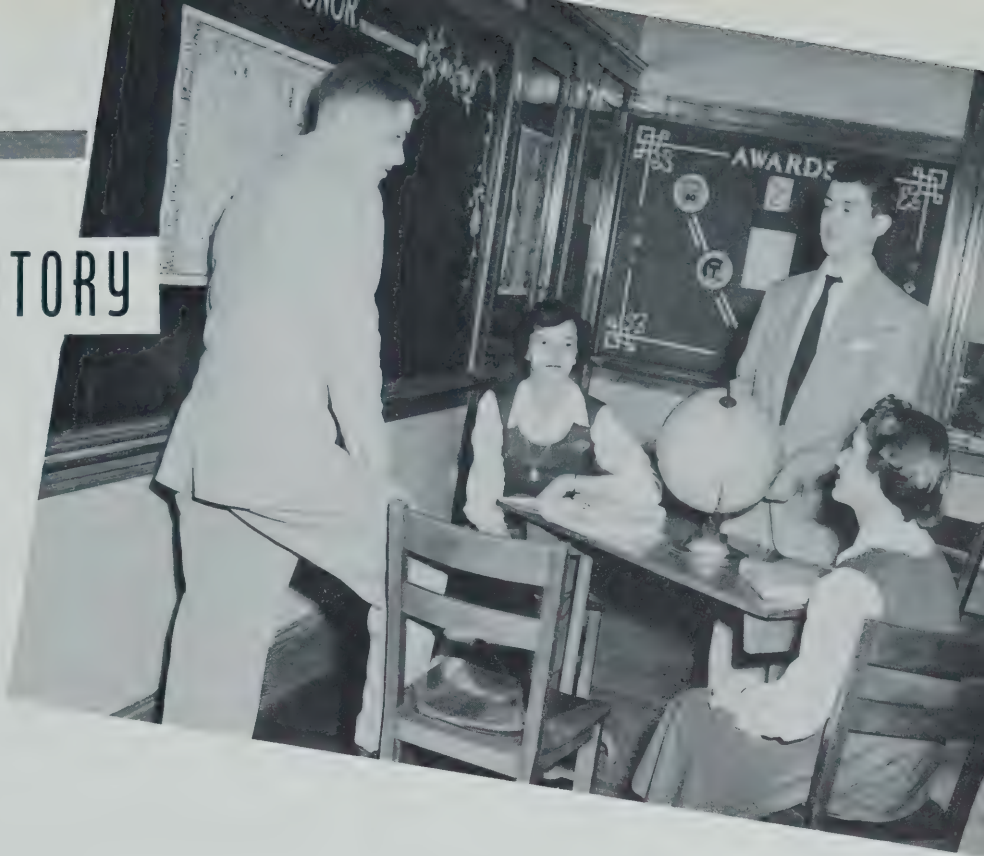

TYPEWRITING

Commercial Department exacts efficiency and service in an effort to train us for success in the business world.

HISTORY

United States History assures the makings of a good citizen. Our appreciation of American life is heightened by contact with the culture of other nations as we study classic and modern languages.

Tinkering with all kinds of business gadgets such as Mimeoscope, Mimeograph, Cardvertiser, Ediphones, and Comptometers makes commerce an intriguing and popular course at Our Lady of Pity High.

OFFICE PRACTICE

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

Chemistry is a vital factor in the progress of the modern world. We have learned to explore the field of science, and have experienced a keen curiosity in its wondrous possibilities. Left to right:- Roger Gaudet, Charlene Roberts, and Robert Theriault.

onders Lie In God's Creation

CHEMISTRY

Biology is a science equally as intriguing as chemistry. The wonders of plant and animal life, and the marvelous mechanism of the human body lead us to a greater reverence for the God of Creation.

CLASS PROPHECY

The crystal ball reveals manifold happenings of the years to come--some good, some bad. However, only the best has happened to the Class of '56, and a look into the future will reveal what has become of each one of us.

The year is 1986 and we behold Roger Gaudet on his way to work in the railroad yards. Roger, being the best flag signal man in the country, has been diligently practicing in preparation for the arrival of that colossal, new cross-country diesel, the Super-Duper Chief, designed by the world renowned multi-millionaire, Paul Bolduc. The train is attempting to establish a world record by making the non-stop trip from Hollywood to Boston in a single day.

James Coughlin has also landed a job with the railroad. He is just learning the ropes of the information booth, and many people wishing to go to Maine find themselves in the heart of California due to Jimmy's helpful MISguidance!

If you look closely, you might see a slightly corpulent lady frantically endeavoring to gather her brood of twelve children. This is none other than Judith Lefebvre, trying to bring her "little" family home to prepare some crepe-suzettes for them and her lumberjack husband, who has just returned from the north woods.

Among the noted passengers on the train is the new movie starlet, Miss Jacqueline Demers, who has just completed a new release, Dr. Jacqueline and Mr. Hyde. It is rumored that she is being granted an Academy Award for her brilliant performance. Accompanying her is her private secretary, Mr. Robert Poirier, now world famous because of his sensational book, I Was A Rear Admiral for the Navy.

All the employees in the station are talking about yesterday's collision. One of the porters, William O'Neill, trying to earn a few extra tips, was burdened with so many bags and suitcases that his vision was blocked. Well, you can imagine what happened. Bang!!! He barnstormed right into a commuter!!! They say it took him hours to round up the scattered baggage, but he managed somehow to collect all his anticipated tips.

While waiting for the train to arrive, just glance at the paper to find out what has happened to other classmates of ours.

The critics are raving about a masterpiece of literature entitled The Womanly Art of Self-Defense by Lorraine Parilla, Professional Wrestler, Hockey Player, Marble Champion, Dramatic Actress, and Jockey. Her last book, Autobiography of a Genius in Four Volumes, won her fame and fortune. What will this one bring???

The society page says that the First Lady of the 400 set, formerly Rita Ouellette, now Mrs. Reginald N. Throckmorton III, will christen the luxury liner, S.S. Banana-Boat, today. Mrs. Throckmorton has the added privilege of having two of the ship's smoke stacks named in her honor.

Well, well, what's this? The celebrated Mexican guitar virtuoso, Pedro Gonzalez, and his vivacious spouse, the former Janet Marchand, will soon appear in New England. Mrs. Gonzalez is booked to perform her intricate "Sombrero Dance" in the Boston Garden. Free lessons will be awarded as a door prize to the lucky ticket holder.

Starred the same evening will be the master of prestidigitation, Robert Theriault, better known as "Bob the Mysterious." He amazed his last audience by bringing about the complete disappearance of a subject, but, sad to say, Bob failed to bring him back and up to this very day all his attempts have been to no avail.

Some front page photos show us the brilliant research chemist, Miss Charlene Roberts, in her newly equipped laboratory. While performing an experiment she took an atom and placed it in a test tube for further study. All of a sudden there was an explosion and she found herself perched on the uppermost branch of a tree. She nimbly climbed down, however, and cheerfully undertook another project. Let's hope this one doesn't discharge and send her to the moon.

You may come across the following ads while scanning the current newspaper. The first

It would take a book to narrate the exciting life led by Anne Theriault, who went prospecting along the Yukon Trail and discovered nothing except a husband and two Alaskan Huskies weighing 150 pounds each. Make sure she doesn't talk you into visiting her on her farm where she is quite happy. But who wants to take the risk?

Here comes the train at last and there goes the principal ticket puncher of the station, Miss Joan Daniels. She saw an ad in the paper one day requesting a girl with punching experience. Now, everybody knows Joan used to punch down at the card parties held in Our Lady of Pity School Hall, so she obtained the position since she possessed the necessary skill.

one reads:

"If your temperature is up
And your resistance is low ---
Buy Kelly's T.N.T.
And you'll get up and go."

Following is another which may interest former students:

"Is Your Car Running? It is? ..
Then have it run to Mad Man Covel's Jalopy Swap Shop immediately. We give you the most for your money, and take most of your money for what we give you."

The last one may prove quite promising--if you live to tell it.

"Do you need something to cure your ills?
Try Dr. Mary Jane Quirk's all purpose pills.
Taken every night with a little nip,
They will help you keep a stiff upper lip."

If you get hungry while waiting, be sure to go to Boston's favorite restaurant, Menou's Mulligan Stew House, owned and operated by Diane Morneault. Diane is an exceedingly cordial hostess, who will gladly give you a double serving and perhaps tell you the secret of her superior cooking which is--Never burn water when you boil it. 37

An additional treat is the appearance of that distinguished designer of women's clothing, Mrs. Nancy Williams Dior, who is sporting one of her original chapeaux. It is called the "Peek-a-Boo Burlap Hat" and a radar set accompanies every purchase.

The last one to alight from the train is Miss Julia Demers. At present

Mother of God and Queen of Heaven, we proclaim thee Queen of our hearts. May the simplicity of Thy faith rule our understanding; may Thy virginal purity rule our hearts.

Deign, O beloved Mother and Queen, to preside at our gatherings, to bless our temporal and spiritual undertakings, to dispel our cares, to sanctify our joys, to mitigate our sufferings.

Be our Queen in life, but most of all, be our Queen in death; pray for us sinners now and at the hour of death. Amen.

CLASS HISTORY

September of 1952 introduced a new freshman class into Our Lady of Pity High. Our first test came at initiation. We were terrified at the thought of what was in store for us and the humiliation we would have to bear while parading about on that fatal day, dressed like six year olds carrying balloons, lollipops, dolls, and what not. The upperclassmen didn't help matters much by their teasing and taunting, but it was all in fun and when the ordeal was over, more than ever we felt a part of the school. Being teenagers, we enjoyed the various social activities of the school such as Initiation, Hallowe'en and Christmas Parties, Class Night, and the monthly dances sponsored by the school. We also participated in playing volley ball and tennis, and were very proud receiving our letters on Sports Night.

Most of our freshman efforts, however, were spent in maintaining our places on the high school honor roll which was something new to us and an incentive in our studies. The year terminated with graduation which was the seniors' big day, and we helped to make it more impressive by being their honor guard of undergraduates.

Upon entering the hallowed halls of Our Lady of Pity High as sophomores, we rejoiced in the fact that no longer we would have to bear the title of "Lowly Freshmen." We became more attentive in our studies and more appreciative of all that our teachers and priests were doing for us. Accompanied by the friendliness of the upperclassmen, we now felt that we were definitely an integral part of Our Lady of Pity High School. In conjunction with our studies there were various extra-curricular activities such as Initiation which we watched with glee, happy that we were among the innocent bystanders. The Hallowe'en and Christmas parties and numerous educational films rounded out our schedule. Most exciting of all, however, was the dance which we sponsored for the first time as sophomores. In the spring we accompanied the juniors and seniors to the Boston Theater to see the spectacular showing of "This Is Cinerama." We were amazed at the beautiful and exciting scenes.

Class Night held in the earlier part of June was a momentous occasion for the seniors. Many tears were shed by them at the thought of saying good-bye. On Graduation night we formed honor guards for the seniors as they proudly walked down the aisle to the stage. After singing the farewell chorus and thanking our teachers we left school eagerly looking forward to the coming year.

The following year found us eagerly anticipating our challenging junior responsibilities. We felt mature and qualified to shoulder the numerous duties ascribed to us. The subject of vocations was frequently brought before us and our inquiring minds investigated and discussed God's possible plans for each one of us. The guidance and experience of our kind teachers helped tremendously. We shall never forget the beautiful day of the senior-junior outing at Salem Willows which proved to be so educational. Now came the seniors' turn to be privately re-initiated at the annual Hallowe'en party sponsored by the junior class. They were the best of sports, however, and we all had a marvelous time. At the Christmas Party Santa Claus showered us with many gifts. It was during the Christmas Holidays that plans were made for the semi-formal held January 15. Prom time finally arrived. It was our first opportunity to don lovely evening gowns and smart tuxedos. How glamorous we looked and felt on that long anticipated night of nights. Only two events remained now, Class Night and Graduation. When the school, led by the juniors, was assembled in the hall to bid farewell, the seniors were pensive and tearful at the thought of parting. We had made many friends among the seniors and on graduation night fond and sad farewells were expressed. Upon returning as seniors, we resolved to imitate their exemplary conduct.

This year as September rolled around, we were awakened to the somewhat somber realization that this would be the last time we would begin a new school year at Our Lady of Pity High. Class officers were elected with the following results: president, Roger Gaudet; vice-president, Nancy Williams; secretary, Judith Lefebvre; and treasurer, Jacqueline Demers. We planned with glee the Initiation of the newcomers;

one whole week of revenge for the time when we, as freshmen, had to go through similar tortures. Shortly after the opening of the school year, we made a return visit to the House of the Seven Gables and then on to Salem Willows accompanied by our teachers and the junior class. Then it seemed that we had little more than taken a quick breath when we began a three-day retreat with Father Beaulne as our Retreat Master; it was a great spiritual lift for us all. When we had settled down to our books once more, our yearbook drive began, and with the much appreciated help of the underclassmen, we worked until our financial goal was attained. In the early part of November, we invaded Vantine Studios to have our class pictures taken. With the distribution of these among ourselves, once again the thought of parting came to our minds. Our jolly Santa Claus filled everybody with holiday spirit at the annual Christmas party, as he distributed the beautifully wrapped gifts to the priests, sisters, and students. At the outset of the New Year we held the mid-winter Semi-Formal. The orchestra played our favorite songs while we danced to our hearts' content. Before we realized it, we began to prepare for the commencement exercises. In the midst of all this, we spent the most enjoyable evening of our high school years! Our Senior - Junior Prom, with all its dazzle and excitement, proved to be even more wonderful than our fondest dreams. While the last goodbys were being said, we prayed that God would watch over our cherished friends throughout their lives. May the diplomas received at the hands of our beloved Pastor be the premiums of work well done and a pledge that the fine training received here at Our Lady of Pity High may accompany us along life's journey.

(Class Prophecy

she is a leading model at the Vantine Studios. She photographed a millionaire one day and substituted some pictures of Clark Gable in the proofs. He liked them so much he married her and now she owns a mink coat so long that her maid has to hold it up to prevent it from dragging on the ground.

It certainly was a pleasure to reveal the fate that lady luck bestowed upon each of our former classmates. We are sure all are happy and contented in their respective field. Let us hope that God will be half as good to us as these predictions have been; if so, we shall certainly hold a glorious reunion some day in Heaven.

CARE TO DANCE?

JUNIOR-SENIOR

PROM

A tribute with song was given Our Blessed Mother by Our Lady of Pity High School students attending the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Standing in front of the statue of Our Lady on the stage of the auditorium, time out was taken for the singing of "Mother Beloved."

A black and white photograph of a young woman, Annette Martinello, standing on a stage. She is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved dress with a full skirt and a crown. She is holding a bouquet of flowers and is in the process of placing a crown of roses on the head of a statue of the Blessed Mother. The statue is also holding a bouquet of flowers. The background is dark, and there are some plants visible on the stage.

QUEEN

Annette Martinello, selected as queen of the annual Junior-Senior Prom, places a crown of roses on the statue of the Blessed Mother, honored by throng of students.

May the Body of Our Lord Jesus-Christ preserve thy soul to life everlasting. Amen.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1956, being of eccentric minds, ever failing memories, and forced generosity, do hereby bequeath this tenth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six some fragment of our prodigious intelligence and astounding capability to solve the most perplexing problems, to the students of Our Lady of Pity High School.

SECTION I - To our Beloved Pastor, Father Charest, we leave our everlasting gratitude for his kindness and fatherly interest, and for his unceasing efforts in aiding us through our four years of high school.

To Father Dumond, we give our thanks for imparting to us the correct outlook on life and the promise that we shall keep forever in our hearts the ideals he has set before us.

To our Devoted Sisters, we express our sincere appreciation for their unflagging devotedness, their sympathetic understanding, and their constant encouragement in all our undertakings.

To our Dear Parents, we leave our heartfelt thanks and undying love for giving us the opportunity to acquire a sound Catholic education.

To the Juniors, we leave a little more wisdom and a generous supply of school spirit.

To the Sophomores, we leave a carload of stamina, enthusiasm, and perseverance to carry them through the last two years.

To the Freshmen, we leave the memories of initiation and the happiness of three more glorious years at N.D.P.H.

SECTION II - Because of our exceptionally bountiful unselfishness and love for our beloved Juniors, we bequeath the following treasures:

Mary Jane Quirk leaves to Pat Fitzgerald her reducing pills and her leftover car checks.

Janet Marchand leaves her black curly hair and pegged chinos to Pauline Hamel.

Judith Lefebvre leaves her high scholastic standing and her old piano pieces to Janet Tetrault, and three crinoline petticoats to James Kilroy.

Anne Theriault leaves her tall stature and her bermudas to Margaret Arseneault.

Diane Morneault leaves her best pal, Benny the Ghost, and her eyebrow pencil to Alice Audet.

Robert Poirier leaves his slimness and his horned-rimmed glasses to Denise Boudreau.

Robert Theriault leaves his boy scout uniform to William Fleming and his school tie to Lu-

Roger Gaudet leaves his nimble piano fingers, his leadership, his school spirit, and his empty M. T. A. seat to Brenda Dodge.

Walter Kelly leaves his boyish grin and pleasant frame of mind to Claire Sarasin.

William O'Neill leaves his collection of fish to John Robinson.

William Covell leaves his easy blush and his famous strut to John Bastarache.

Paul Bolduc leaves his willingness to help and his boxing gloves to Anne Marie Gagne, and his old bus boy job at Harvard to Denise Boudreau.

Lorraine Parilla leaves her scholastic ability and her huge lunches to Carole Lally.

James Coughlin leaves his quiet disposition and his curly eyelashes to Rose Marie Deon.

With the approval of each member of the graduating class of 1956 we hereby authorize this to be our last will and testament. May these most valued gifts be used wisely by the foregoing recipients.

Diane Morneault
Anne Theriault

Charlene Roberts leaves her contagious giggle and her overflowing supply of sunshine Vitamin D. to Dolores Santos.

Joan Daniels leaves her old typewriter erasers to William Fleming, and her long tresses, her ladylike demeanor and primness to Rose Marie Denoncourt.

Nancy Williams leaves her Rindge book covers to Rose Marie Deon, and her cherished Eddie Fisher album to Dolores Santos.

Jackie Demers leaves her obliging ways, her ceaseless activity, and her competence in handling and collecting money to Pauline Hamel.
